

June '53 Freshmen Will Hold Dance Next Friday

The Carnival Hop, a cabaret-style dance, will be held in the Alumni Gymnasium on Friday, February 17, from 9:00 till 1:00. Sponsored by the June '53 Class, the dance will be informal and open to the entire student body.

Music for the affair will be provided by Eddie Trovato and his orchestra.

Has Lenten Theme

The name of the dance, Carnival Hop, is in part derived from the Latin words carnas and vale, which mean "meat" and "farewell," respectively. Thus a carnival was originally a celebration prior to a time of fasting.

This theme was chosen because the Carnival Hop will be the last Loyola social before Lent.

Committees Listed

Tickets for the dance are $1.50 per couple. Refreshments consisting of soft drinks, potato chips and pretzels will be served in the snack bar.

William Manger is chairman of the Dance Committee. Other members of the committee include Henry Himpler, who is managing ticket sales; Thomas Volatile, who took care of getting the orchestra; John Morling, who supervises advertising; and Robert Adams, who handles decorations.

Has No Class Officers

The Dance Committee was appointed by James Garland, temporary freshman representative on the Student Council.

There are no freshman class officers owing to two unsuccessful elections earlier this year. The first polling, held in October, was invalidated, because less than 25% of the class voted. The second election, in January, failed for the same reason.

War Dept. Overseas Positions Announced

Professional recreation directors for Army Service Clubs in Japan and Okinawa are urgently needed by the War Department, announces Mr. Henry L. Zerbusea, of the Loyola Guidance and Placement Center.

Salaries range from $2724 to $2974 a year. In addition to the salary there is a post differential amounting to 10% of the base pay for Japan and 25% for Okinawa.

The Placement Center also has information on career selection from the Federal Security Agency, the National Association of Manufacturers, the Quarrel Corporation, the Civil Service Commission, the Department of Commerce, the Navy Department, the Department of the Interior, and various local business establishments.

Class Of 1949 Meets Tonight

Graduates of the Class of 1949 will hold their first annual reunion tonight by attending together the Loyola-Mt. St. Mary's basketball game in the Evergreen Gymnasium.

The Athletic Association has reserved one of the center sections of the stands for members of all three sections of the class and their dates, and special tickets have been made available for them.

Sitting under their class banner, the '49 group will have their own cheerleaders—C. Rodgers Kines, James Stevens and John Schnab—who will wear the white and green sweaters of the class. The actual reunion will take place after the game.

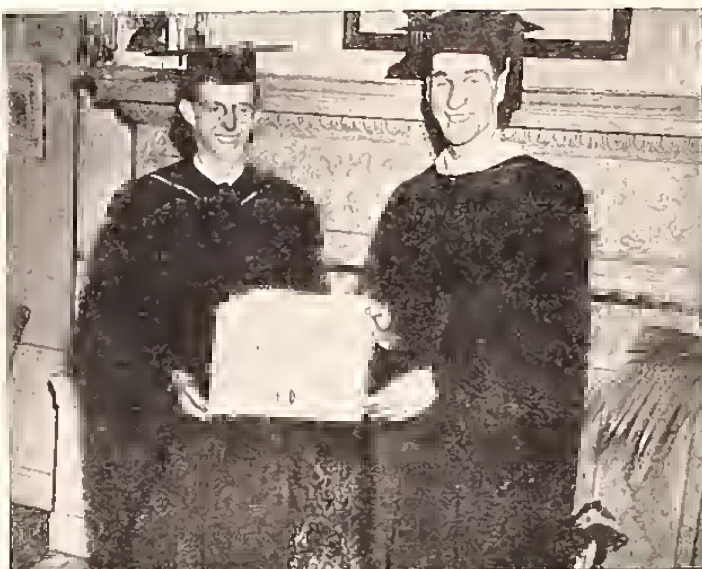

William Schultz, chairman of the Ticket Committee, has arranged for members of the class to obtain their special tickets at the alumni booth, at the east end of the Gym. The Publicity Committee, under James Bowen, has sent postcards to all class members, notifying them of the affair.

Mendel Club Will Hear Talk On 'Lysenkoism'

"Lysenkoism" will be the topic of a talk to be given by John J. Mercaido at the February 28 meeting of the Mendel Club. This is the theory, currently held in Soviet Russia, that acquired characteristics are genetically transmitted.

On February 9 David Owens spoke before the group on "Metagenesis," or the alternation of generations in lower life.

Emilio A. Blanco lectured to the club on January 10. His topic was "Animal Behavior."

LOYOLA GRADUATES Edward T. Martin and Harry K. Shock, Jr., are shown together in the reception room of the Faculty House after the January 29 commencement. They are now studying for the priesthood.

Two Jan. '50 Graduates Enter St. Mary's Seminary Together

Two January graduates of Loyola have begun their studies for the priesthood. Edward T. Martin, Ph.D., and Harry K. Shock, Jr., A.B., who received their degrees at the first session of the One Hundredth Commencement, are now studying together at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore.

Both majored in English at Loyola. Shock was president of his class.

Born On Same Day

Born on the same day—September 26, 1926—Martin and Shock grew up together in Hampden, where they attended St. Thomas's parochial school.

Upon graduation they entered City College. A year later they were separated when Shock left to finish his high-school education at Loyola.

Entering the service after receiving their high-school diplomas, they were again separated. Martin went into the infantry, and Shock became a combat air crewman in the Navy. Both were discharged in the latter part of 1946 and enrolled at Loyola in January, 1947.

Active In CYO

Active in CYO activities, they helped organize the Senior Division of the CYO at St. Thomas's. Shock was the group's president, and Martin was its second. Later Martin acted as chairman of the permanent Cultural Committee, one of the main activities of the parish CYO group.

In May, 1949, Shock was elected to the Baltimore CYO Senior Council, a position which he held until last month. Both Martin and Shock were also active in other parish activities.

NSA Will Offer Work-Study Tours Next Summer

Work-study tours in Europe next summer are now being arranged for American college students by the National Student Association. At present travel and study accommodations for approximately 800 students are available.

Full details of the tours and application forms may be got by writing to the International Commission, 18 Brattle Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

A booklet Work, Study, Travel, Abroad 1950 is also offered to students planning to make the tours.

Paris Churches To Be Lecture Tour Subject

"Paris and Her Churches" will be the topic of a lecture by the Rev. Richard F. Grady, S.J., Dean of the Evening School of the University of Scranton, in the parish hall of St. Ignace Church this evening at 7:45.

The talk is the second in a series of nine lectures on the shrines and churches to be visited by pilgrims making the special Holy Year tours. The course is presented under the auspices of the Loyola Evening School.

Taught At Evergreen

Father Grady received his B.A. degree from St. Joseph's College, Philadelphia, in 1924 and entered the Society of Jesus in the same year. Pursuing his studies at Woodstock College, from which he holds an M.A. and an S.T.L. degree, he was ordained in 1935. Later he studied abroad and got his Ph.D. from Gregorian University.

In 1937 he was appointed dean of Canisius College, Buffalo. He subsequently came to Loyola to head the English Department until he entered the Army as a chaplain in 1942.

Preached At Notre Dame

Serving three years in the European theatre, Father Grady spent 20 months in Paris, where he preached at Notre Dame, Sacre Coeur, and La Madeleine.

While overseas, he also served in London, Frankfurt and along the Army's line of march across Europe.

Father Grady holds the Bronze Star, the Croix de Guerre with a Silver Star, and the Medaille de la Reconnaissance.

Next Talk On February 17

The third talk of the series, "Lourdes," will be given by the Rev. John J. Ryan, S.J., editor of Patina Findings, on Friday, February 17.

Opening these talks was "The Papacy," delivered by the Rev. Edmund A. Walsh, S.J., dean of the Georgetown Foreign Service School, on Friday, February 3.

Ticket prices are $1.00 per lecture. Anyone wishing to attend these talks should contact the Loyola College Evening School.

Government To Use Article By Dr. Hoyt

An article on Maryland by Dr. William D. Hoyt, of the Evergreen History Department, which appeared in the September issue of Think magazine, is to be translated into various languages and used by the State Department in its propaganda work "in continental Europe, Latin America, the Middle East, the Far East and Africa."

Dr. Hoyt is listed in the first edition of Who Knows—And What, the newest publication of the A. N. Marquis Company, publishers of Who's Who in America. He is classified as an "expert in the fields of State and Local History and the History of Maryland." Also listed is his brother, Dr. J. S. Y. Hoyt, of the Department of Ornithology, Cornell University.

EVERGREEN PRESIDENT, the Very Rev. Francis X. Talbot, S.J., hands William Cronin his diploma at the first session of the One Hundredth Commencement. The Rev. Vincent F. Beatty, S.J., assists, while the Most Rev. Francis P. Keough, D.D., Archbishop of Baltimore, looks on.

Council Seats Three Members

Three new delegates were seated at the brief Student Council meeting of February 2. Following committee and activity reports, the group adjourned to the reading room of the Faculty House for yearbook pictures.

Michael Zedalls was admitted as the representative of the Athletic Association; he succeeded Francis Meagher, who was recently graduated. Zedalls is vice-president of the Block-L, and he assumed the Council seat because of a recent decision that the Block-L second officer is proper successor to the office.

Mailbox Pending

Francis X. Trainor replaced Edward McNeal as Senior Sodality representative. George Bauernschaub will represent the Glee Club in the future. He occupies a seat vacated by Charles Davis, who now attends State Teachers' College.

The committee assigned to seek a mailbox for student mail reported that the Dean is considering the allocation of an unused cabinet for this purpose. Emerson Clarke, of the July '50 class, announced that the final financial statement of the recent Junior Prom is not yet available.

Reports Given

Zedalls outlined the week's sports schedule and mentioned progress on the newly formed Boosters' Club. Edward Frederick called a meeting of the Social Science Club with Morgan College students to the attention of the Council. At this meeting, on February 7, "The Local Racial Problem" was discussed. James Garland reported that the freshman class will hold the "Carnival Hop" on February 17. Chess Club representative Thomas Jimas announced an intramural Chess Tournament, which will last five weeks.

Booster Badges Going

A total of nine faithful fans has applied for Boosters' Club badges in the Bookstore, according to Miss Rosalie Frederick, emporium clerk. Of the one hundred that were procured in anticipation of the initial rush of new members, ninety-one remain.

The Student Council continues, however, to advocate the plan, under which a student may purchase a badge for five cents which entitles him to sit in a Boosters' section of the gym and help lead the cheering.

Council members were heard to say that as the supply is limited and dwindling as fast as it is, the wise man would get his badge now.

Junior Sodality Aids Student

Help for a Polish seminarian was among the plans discussed at the Junior Sodality's monthly Central Council meeting held on January 23. Arrangements have already been made to provide this aid to the Polish student.

Other action to be taken by the Sodality will include the support of the Catholic Book Week convention, to be held at Calvert Hall College this month under the sponsorship of the Maryland Unit of the Catholic Library Association. The Sodality will assist in the sale of literature.

The date for the annual Day of Recollection has been set for Sunday, April 23.

The reception of new members into the Junior Sodality will be held on Sunday, March 26, in conjunction with the Senior Sodality. This reception marks the end of a preparatory period for the candidates.

Another measure adopted by the Central Council will be the active defense of the Church in reply to journalistic attacks. This would be accomplished mainly through letters to the editors of various publications.

The completion of the program will be realized by the presentation of the Queen's Ball on May 12 in the gymnasium.

Old Grad Retires Honorably; Basketball League Is Forming

by John J. Pugh, '43

Announcement has recently been made of the retirement of J. Preston W. McNeal as manager of the Judicial Department of the Maryland Casualty Co. after twenty-five years of outstanding service. The announcement was accompanied by a statement from the President of the Company to the effect that "Mr. McNeal, throughout the years, has faithfully and efficiently served the Company. He has earned the profound appreciation of the Company and the good will of all his associates within the Maryland organization."

Congratulations Due

Congratulations are certainly due Mr. McNeal for having withstood the modern pace of living and, at the same time, for winning such plaudits from his associates. By golly, there's some life in the Alumni Association yet! (Editor's Note: Mr. McNeal was an 1898 A.B. graduate and was awarded the fifty-year gold medal at the May, 1949, commencement exercises.)

The following engagements have been announced: U. of Maryland law student John E. Mudd and Miss Alice Maureen O'Toole, of Brooklyn and Blue Point, L. I.; Charles Brana, Jan. '50, and Miss Gloria Lambert; Carvill Franelis Worrell and Miss Patricia Anne Pruner.

Accepting Team Rosters

Attention is again called to the fact that on Thursday nights the facilities of the Gym are reserved for the Alumni. To date, full use is not being made of this privilege. Henceforth this column will accept the names of volunteers for half-court basketball teams for the purpose of establishing an interclass alumni league.

Remember, there was a time when the Alumni Bowling League did not exist. Now it provides a regular "night out" (references furnished to wives upon request) for many members of the Association.

Library's Book Mart To Be Held At CHC

A book mart will be held at the Calvert Hall College auditorium under the sponsorship of the Maryland unit of the Catholic Library Association on February 23 and 24 to commemorate Catholic Book Week.

According to reports from the Loyola College Library, the affair will consist mainly of lectures and the display and sale of Catholic literature. The time of the mart has been scheduled from 3:00 p. m. to 11:00 p. m.

Dr. Frank Ayil will speak on "Catholic Reading and Mental Hygiene" on February 23. The following day, the Very Rev. Francis X. Talbot, S. J., President of the College, will speak on the theme of Catholic Book Week, "Holy Reading Maketh the Whole Man."

39 Free From Exams As New System Becomes Effective

Thirty-nine students were exempted from final exams after the first term under the new exemption rules. Due to incomplete records of the Registrar's Office, the list might be slightly longer.

Six A.B. students, three Ph.D., 15 BS I and ten BS II undergraduates were included, as well as five freshman of unrecorded courses.

The regulations requiring an average of ninety percent in each subject to qualify for exemptions from all exams went into effect at the start of the second quarter.

Good News for Air Minded College Men!

A U. S. Air Force interviewing team will be here to give you complete details about the many flying and non-flying opportunities open to single young men between ages of 20 and 26½. Find out how you can prepare for a career as an officer in the U. S. Air Force!

U. S. Army

USAF Agents Will Interview

Interviews will be given on the campus during the week after next to young men interested in a career as an officer in the United States Air Force.

An Air Force officer team, composed of 1st Lts. Britt and Talig-nani, will establish headquarters in the Library, the Library Building, top floor. During the week of February 20, they will explain career opportunities, assist those interested in filling out application forms, and give qualifying examinations to those seeking Aviation Cadet pilot or navigator training.

Students who meet the qualifications, it was explained, will have opportunity to begin the processing procedure so they will be ready to start training as soon as they finish college.

Three Programs Open

Qualified young men have opportunity to train as pilots, as navigators, or for nonflying duties. The latter program consists of Officer Candidate School, which prepares officers for nonflying junior executive duties in administrative and technical fields.

The Aviation Cadet Pilot Training Program trains young men to fly the new postwar types of aircraft. Graduates of the one-year course, which combines flying, academic and military training, receive Reserve commissions as second lieutenants and are assigned as rated pilots to active duty with the Air Force.

Regular Commission Possible

Outstanding graduates receive Regular commissions. The others, who receive Reserve commissions, have opportunity to compete for Regular commissions during their three-year tour of active duty.

To be eligible for any of the programs, men must be single citizens between the ages of 20 and 26½. They must have completed two years or more of college and meet high physical and moral qualifications.

Wash-Outs Freed

The Aviation Cadet Navigator Training Program trains young men in the latest methods of radar navigation for duty on the new long-range bombers and air transports. Graduates of the one-year course, which includes 184 hours of instruction in "flying classrooms," receive commissions as second lieutenants, with aeronautical rating as navigator. Opportunities for Regular commissions are the same as for Aviation Cadets taking pilot training.

Students who for any reason fail to complete any of the Air Force officer training programs are returned to civilian life.

Book Poster Contest Announced By Library

The Loyola College library announced the opening of a poster contest on February 1. The theme is Catholic Book Week. Competition is open to all students.

The author of each poster will remain anonymous to the judges, but he will be given an entry number by which his work will be judged. All entries must be submitted by February 21.

The winner of the contest will receive a prize of five dollars. The winning poster will be displayed at the Catholic book mart to be held at Calvert Hall.

Students Plan Holy Year Tour

Approximately 15 Loyola students will make a Holy Year pilgrimage to Western Europe next August 3 under the direction of the Rev. Vincent F. Beatty, S.J.

The tourists will embark from New York and arrive in Le Havre, France, on August 12. The itinerary includes visits to numerous cities in the 37-day trip. Some of the stops are Paris, Lourdes, Nice, Florence, Perugia, Assisi and Rome.

Three days will be spent in Paris sightseeing, highlighted by an excursion to Versailles. On the evening of August 6, they will leave for Lourdes to hear Mass and receive Holy Communion.

Leaving Lourdes, the group travels to Nice where they will spend the first of their two days at Monte Carlo. On August 21 they leave for Florence and thence to Rome via Perugia and Assisi.

The first day in Rome will be occupied by sightseeing. On succeeding days they will participate in ceremonies at St. Peter's, visit the Lateran Museum, have a special audience with His Holiness Pope Plus XII and then make an extensive tour of Vatican City, with emphasis on its museums.

The group will leave Rome on August 31 for Paris and Le Havre, then journey home.

Machines Besiege Loyola, Oops, Pardon, Politicos

by Howard J. France

With all due apologies to the campus politicians, the machine is taking over Loyola. There is a mechanical servant for practically every need: cigarettes, candy, cokes, gum—and now, ice cream popsicles.

Pity the poor student who comes to school not well laden down with nickels. Or, conversely speaking, pity the student who is well fortified and goes home a poor student.

Perhaps in a few years, science will produce a robot Loyolan. Then all we would have to do is drop in a slug and spend the rest of the day in the gym playing basketball, taking time out occasionally to purchase a supersonic lollipop. The only thing that worries us is that our mechanical proxy might break down just before exam time.

This progress could be detrimental. We hear that there is a new invention which can tell if you ever got a traffic ticket before. What a weapon this would make for the local ticket-dispensers!

Imagine sitting in a class room during a test period, getting stuck for an answer, kicking your neighbor on his metal leg and then hearing him clatter, "I don't know."

Citizens?

Samuel N. Stevens, president of Grinnell College, recently urged educators to develop in their students "a heightened critical judgment as to the direction in which social change moves." In the course of his remarks, he added, "in the face of national financial disaster, our politicians glibly talk of a welfare state. In an era when discipline with responsibility on the part of citizens is one of the greater needs, we see developing on every hand a cult of irresponsibility, with a dangerous willingness on the part of many men and women to pass their duty on to others, who, for purposes of power, are willing to assume it."

Every American college student should take note of these timely words. As election after election proves, most Americans are willing to stand and watch their government assume more and more of their own responsibility as citizens. These tendencies are subversive of the essential postulates of our social organism.

Free enterprise and personal responsibility cannot coexist with a substantial dependency on the state for subsistence. He who provides the means of existence can also remove those means. Consequently, the citizen becomes a slave to and exists for the state. This situation

- Welfarism

is far removed from the original concept of American democracy, but we are well on the road to a reversal of public attitude—a reversal which might eventually mean the practical abrogation of private and civic rights.

The welfare state, paternalism and state control are insidious tools which can undermine the sources of our freedom and our power. Few current problems demand more attention.

The college student of today must strive to provide strong leadership in civic affairs. The power of his opinion is great, but unexercised. His intellectual equipment must be used with unwavering conviction to preserve the true concepts of government despite the specious utopia of a spineless and dependent citizenship.

Politeness

Politeness is universally recognized as a virtue which should be present in the Whole Man, but some Loyola students are apparently deficient in this respect. Why not wait until the conclusion of First Friday devotions before rushing to the cafeteria? It is evident that if politeness is desirable at any time, it certainly should be manifested at religious services. Ten minutes longer at Benediction won't hurt anyone physically—or spiritually.

Perry Como Issues Smooth 'New' Ballad

by Richard Coleman

Our record-of-the-week bid for this edition of the paper has to go to our old buddy Perry Como with his issuance of a smooth ballad called A Dream Is A Wish Your Heart Makes. The tune itself sounds like a steal from about four old tunes which became hits. So when you get four old hits wrapped into a new tune how can it possibly miss? It is a good dance tune with words that mean a little but not much.

Speaking of words that mean a lot, try to give a listen to Ella Fitzgerald's latest waxing of a tune called A Man Wrote A Song. For my bet it should be one of the greatest tunes of the year. But you know Mr. Average Public as well as I do, and consequently tunes like this one generally go by the board. Ella's pipes are as smooth as ever.

I cannot stop raving about this fella on the Galloway Show named Jack Haskell. Haskell is just about different enough to do a good job of going to the top of the crooning ladder. Not much personality on the screen but a nice style and great phrasing and tone to his singing. He has presented several sides to the public on the Decca Label. His best recorded tune for my seventy-nine cents is a thing called I Know, I Know, I Know. Haskell is backed by Roy Ross and his fine outfit (no doubt a studio band). A chorus completes the final setting on the record. The tune is exceptional; Haskell is good and so is the band and chorus. If you catch my Saturday afternoon show, you'll be sure to hear this one, because the requests are really coming in.

Bill Lawrence recorded an old tune called In My Little Red Book a couple of weeks ago. It just came out this week. I hate to say it about Bill but to me everything he has recorded so far for Victor sounds the same.

That just about takes care of the latest releases with the exception of one. Sinatra is his old self again with a thing called Sorry backed by the band of Axel Stordahl and the chorus. Sounds like 1943. See ya later.

From the Library

We rarely reflect that there are 1856 married persons in Nevada and 2013 divorced, that Lake Superior is as large as Ireland and that men over six-feet-three cannot join the Marines. And when, in the course of a quiz program or friendly argument, such matters of fact become pertinent, we're embarrassed or annoyed.

The World Almanac is designed to save this unhappy situation, or at least to show how wrong we guessed. It records more assorted facts per cubic inch than any other source except perhaps John Kieran's brain, which is not so readily available. Librarians find that it answers over half the questions they're asked, even the foolish ones.

If you're building your own library (it's about time), buy the 1950 World Almanac next after Webster's Collegiate Dictionary. At five crowded pages for a cent, it's a bargain. Anyway, consult it in the library on anything from A.A.U. champions to zoological parks—but not when you're in a hurry. One question answered will suggest others; this is a very suggestive book.

Running With The Hounds

by Bob Bourbon

After watching Coach Lefty Reitz's basketball team pull another one of its Frank Merriwell finishes last Thursday night against Seton Hall, one can't remain completely incognizant of the fact that Loyola is a pretty tough team to beat when playing on its home court. Only one out of eleven foes—Villanova—has been able to do it this season.

To belabor our point, a check into the archives reveals that the Greyhounds, since the fall of 1946, exclusive of the M-D Tournament, have been successful in 43 out of 50 games here at Evergreen. A great record, to say the least.

Incidentally, three of these seven losses were administered by LaSalle College, the outfit which at this writing owns a very respectable 14-and-2 record for '49-50, and intends to extend it at our expense next Wednesday evening. During the halftime intermission of the above-mentioned Seton Hall game veteran guard Billy Johnson was presented several awards by local merchants and admiring friends in recognition of four years of basketball service here at school. Bill hasn't broken any scoring records during his stay at Evergreen, but his reputation as a top-flight guard was long ago established. In the defensive aspect of the game he is rated by local fans in a class by himself.

And all this from a lad who originally wanted to try out for the swimming team.

Goodman's Path Fraught With Difficulties

The University of Maryland's highly-regarded wrestling squad beat Loyola, 21 to 13, here at Evergreen last Saturday afternoon, but before they were through they had had a good work-out. Despite the apparently convincing score, it was the best showing that Coach Phil Goodman's boys have made this season, and their performance seems the more remarkable in the light of a number of extenuating circumstances.

From the very outset of the year Goodman has been beset with difficulties. He has lost, via appendices, broken bones, and graduation not one, but seven, key men. Four of the present starters are freshmen, three of whom never wrestled before coming to Loyola. Clearly the man has troubles.

The Green and Grey's mentor feels that he has a fine group of prospects in first-year men Neal Bathon, Joe McLaughlin, Jack Cyphers, and Jim Garland, sophomore Jack Idlet, and junior Ted Haupt; and while they aren't favored to win any team championship this year, he is of the opinion that they will give a good account of themselves next season.

Congrats To O'Donnell

Congratulations are in order to Loyola graduate Andy O'Donnell, who has cast his lot with the Baltimore Bullets, our professional entry in the National Basketball Association. Andy has come along nicely since his debut with Coach Jeannette's five in the latter part of January, and he seems to fit well into the pro style of play.

No doubt, any experience Andy is able to pick up while performing for the Bullets will stand him in good stead in his anticipated coaching career. We sincerely hope that he will be as valuable to them as he was to Loyola.

Best of luck, Andy! It couldn't happen to a nicer guy.

Veeck, McElroy, et al.

The Cleveland Indians' ex-impresario, Bill Veeck, had nothing on our own athletic publicity manager, Bill McElroy, whose latest dream scheme beats everything he has tried before. During the baseball season at the Windy City they have outfielders chasing flies in jeeps and orang-outangs riding bicycles about the infield, while attendants slit their way through the crowd, trying to unload new five-dollar bills for two-fifty a throw. It's colorful, and it draws 'em in.

The only reason McElroy hasn't tried the fly-chasing routine at our basketball games isn't because it's not baseball season, but because he couldn't get the jeep past the first landing on the stairway up into the gymnasium. During the halftime of Tuesday night's contest against Johns Hopkins, however, we had, through the machinations Mr. McElroy, Company A, Second Battalion of St. Anne's Drum and Bugle Corps, which engaged in a series of intricate drills; and in general a good, noisy time was had by all, all over our newly waxed floor.

The Athletic Department would like at this time to repeat the regulation that no one walk on the gym playing floor during the half-time of our basketball games. It leaves footprints.

A CANDID SHOT of a recent swimming match. Man or porpoise?

Wrestlers Lose To Old Liners

Loyola's injury-depleted wrestling squad played the perfect host to the University of Maryland's matmen last Saturday afternoon, losing to the Terps, 21 to 13. The visitors won five out of eight matches, triumphing by falls in the 128-pound, and 175-pound classes.

The Greyhounds did well but had to bow to the weight of greater experience, and so dropped their fourth loss of the season.

Carter Beese, of Loyola, registered the quickest fall of the day, taking down Bill O'Rourke in 2:38.

The match of Ted Haupt versus Ray McGill panned out as the best event of the afternoon. Although Haupt won a 5-to-2 decision, McGill put up a fight all the way before bowing to Loyola's 136-pound matman.

The results:

- 121-Pound Class—Bourdon, Maryland, won by default.
- 128-Pound Class—Framm, Maryland, pinned McLaughlin, Time 6:55
- 136-Pound Class—Haupt, Loyola, defeated McGill, 5 to 2.
- 145-Pound Class—Bathon, Loyola, won by default from Puelins.
- 153-Pound Class—Papamichian, Maryland, defeated Cyphers, 9 to 1.
- 165-Pound Class—Adelberg, Maryland, defeated Hasko, 8 to 0.
- 175-Pound Class—Baker, Maryland, pinned Garland, 4:36.
- Heavyweight—Beese, Loyola, pinned O'Rourke, 2:38.

Swimmers Cop M-D Opener; Mark Set By Medley Relay Team

Swimming coach Jake Flsher made an auspicious debut into Mason-Dixon coaching circles last Saturday, February 4, as his charges swam to a 41-to-34 victory over American U.'s mermen here at Evergreen.

In winning their initial conference meet of the season the Hound swim crew captured six out of the nine events. In the 300-yd. medley relay, the first event of the afternoon, the Loyola combination of Andy McCormick, Dick Lalley, and John Allen set an unofficial conference record in splashing to a win over the American U. combine of Briggs, Patten and Hamel. The official time was 3:18.9.

Jerry Rooney, promising freshman standout, copped the number one slot in both the 50- and 100-yd. freestyle events.

Earl Schuiddt and Dick Lalley tacked down the diving event for the Evergreen swimmers.

Pirate Quintet Beaten, 57-54

Loyola College's basketball team downed Seton Hall's cagers by a score of 57 to 54 here at Evergreen on February 2.

The contest was a typical Seton Hall-Loyola affair as the lead changed hands four times throughout the hectic contest. Mike Zedalis made the initial tally that gave the Hounds a lead which they relinquished for only a few minutes of the first half.

The Pirates, however, paced by 6' 8" Dave Putnam, who possesses one of the finest hook-shots in collegiate circles, managed to keep within striking distance and at half time trailed by only four points.

After the intermission, Seton Hall moved to the fore, while the Evergreen five failed to score from the floor for the first six minutes of the third quarter. Then two quick set shots by Vince Gallagher provided the needed spark and the Hounds pulled away to a 51-to-41 lead.

It was then that Bob Hurt, Negro Forward, who turned in a fine performance for the visitors, led his teammates in a rally that knotted the score at 53 all. Bob Anderson then converted a foul, followed by Vince Gallagher's layup, which copped the decision for the host five.

Box Lacrosse -- Here To Stay?

by Gene Conroy

If you are in the market for some fast, rough, tough action, and no doubt you are after watching the antics of the Baltimore Colts and the Baltimore Bullets, then drop in down at the 5th Regiment Armory one Sunday afternoon and witness the newly formed Vite-Lacrosse League in action.

Six clubs compose the loop, whose weekly double-header on the Sabbath is not only drawing the fans to the huge National Guard arena, but is also being telecast through the facilities of station WBAL-TV.

Maryland Club Leads

At present the Maryland Lacrosse Club, coached by W. P. Wittelsberger, one of the organizers of the league, and boasting such outstanding performers as his two sons, Ken and Ray, both former Loyola College stars, is winging his way out in front of the pack with five wins in as many outings.

Following on the heels of the front-running Free State six are the clubs of the 5th Regiment and Evergreen. The Evergreen crosse-wielders are the boys who, come spring, will be wearing the Green and Grey uniforms of the Greyhound's field lacrosse team.

Evergreen Players

The seventeen team members are Bob Freeze, Frank Kimmel, Frank Pinterfield, Tom and Charlie Wagner, Skip Barry, Al Slisson, Tom Oaster, George Thomas, Doc Carroza, Jerry Murnane, Gene Finley, Jim Whelan, Marshall Love, Jerry Behrond, Joe McLaughlin and John Misker.

Wearing the jerseys of the 5th Regiment aggregation are former Loyola stickmen Vince McGuinness, Bob Delisle, Johnny Mohler and Jack Blondell.

Clubmen Win 11 To 5

The three other teams competing for loop honors are Naval Reserve, a team of one-time Naval High School players, the Baltimore Lacrosse Club and the 29th Artillery squad.

The match of the Maryland Club versus Evergreen of some weeks ago has been the best game to date. Although the test resulted in a 11-to-5 win for the Marylanders, the

Hoyas' Swim Team Defeated As Rooney, McCormick Star

Loyola's swimmers scored their second win of the season here at Evergreen on January 28, when they swamped the wermen of Georgetown University by a 60-to-16 count.

In swimming to this victory over the coachless Hoyas, the Green and Grey tankmen notched eight out of a possible nine firsts and placed one-two in four of the individual meets.

Four of the wins were the work of Jerry Rooney, a freshman performer, and Andy McCormick, a junior.

Rooney captured the 50- and 100-yard freestyle races, while Hanly Andy combined with Dick Latley and Bob Bollinger to win the 300-yard medley relay.

The "Klaggin" then swam a record-breaking 440-yard freestyle race. The record is unofficial, however, owing to the fact that the standard broken is a tournament mark, which can only be broken in the Mason-Dixon tourney.

This meet marked the final appearance of diver Johnny Mohler in Loyola swim togs since he was graduated the following day.

The results:

300-Yard Medley Relay—Won by Loyola (McCormick, Latley, Bollinger); second, Georgetown; Time: 3:21.0.

220-Yard Freestyle—Won by Allen, Loyola; second, Muth, Loyola; third, Harinell, Georgetown; Time: 2:38.1.

Loyola Cagers Trip Terrors By 55-45

Loyola's Greyhounds, trailing for the better part of a closely contested Mason-Dixon basketball tilt, came back strong to beat Western Maryland, 55 to 45, on January 31 at Westminster, Md.

Coach Lefty Reitz's cagers were given a thorough scare before ironing out their offensive kinks and finally drawing away from the underdog Westminster five in the closing minutes of the game. The Loyola mentor had difficulty in finding a suitable working combination to halt the scoring activities of the Terrors' Leo Lathroum and Walt Hajduk, even though the host team's sophomore ace, Art Press, was held to eight points.

The Green and Grey's scoring was spread out amongst nine performers with the visitors' top point-making honors going to Boh Anderson and Bill Johnson, both of whom hit for 12 counters. Additional help afloat and under the basket was supplied by Mike Zedalis, with seven points, and Mel Bahlwin, with eight.

Greyhounds To Encounter La Salle Explorers Here

By John Merendino

With the advent of a new term and a new month, the Loyola basketballers are faced with an imposing five-game schedule before their Mason-Dixon finale and the subsequent league tournament on March 2, 3 and 4 here at Evergreen.

The Greyhound hoopsters will play host to Mount Saint Mary's College, Catholic University and La Salle College, of Philadelphia, on the 10, 13 and 15 of February before tripping off to American University on February 18.

Mountaineers' Clark Lost

The Mt. St. Mary's five, having lost their high-scorer of last season, Pete Clark, will be at a slight disadvantage.

Swimming via Video

Television poked its staring eye into another aspect of contemporary life when WBAL-TV mobile unit crews and cameras moved to pool-side at the Evergreen Natatorium to view the swimming meet between Loyola and Georgetown University, on Saturday, January 28. It was the first telecast of a swimming meet, and the beginning of a four-meet series of video presentations.

Dave Nottingham, WBAL-TV Producer-Director and Loyola student, along with Jake Fisher, Swim Coach, initiated a varied program of swimming events for the opening meet.

The Loyola floormen early last month walked away from Frederick Armory after tripping this same quintet to the tune of 76 to 68.

The Hounds were triumphant last year on two occasions, winning 76 to 60 and 67 to 53.

Won Twice In '40

The cagers from Catholic University will invade the Evergreen campus and should provide a threat for Coach Lefty Reitz's high-scoring proteges. Last season the Evergreen dribblers posted 56-to-47 and 64-to-50 wins over the Cardinals.

In meeting LaSalle College the Green and Grey five will be seeking sweet vengeance. The Explorers, led by all-American candidate Larry Foust, subdued Loyola earlier in the '49-50 campaign by a 73-to-51 margin, and the Quaker City five currently ranks in the top ten of the nation.

Ameriteam U. On February 18

Journeying to Washington on February 18, for the American University fracas, the Hounds will encounter a perennial Mason-Dixon rival in the Eagles, who bowed before the Reitzmen in January by a 50-to-44 count.

Johns Hopkins, who will be met on February 22, will be the next-to-last game of the regularly scheduled season and also the last away tilt of the year. The Jays don't pose as much of a threat, but they could upset the appealant, Loyola beat them on two occasions in 1949.

Matmen To Tangle With Terps And Bees; Deadlock W. Maryland, Lose To Towson

Towson State Teachers'

Loyola came out on the short end of its match with Towson State Teachers' on January 21, bowing to the Towsonites by a 23-to-9 count.

Charles La Hette, wrestling in the 121-pound class, Ted Haupt, 136-pound class, and Carter Beese in the heavyweight division were the only grapplers to win for the College. The trio won on points as the wrestlers went down to defeat for the third time this season.

Western Maryland College

The Loyola matmen tangled with the Terrors, from Western Maryland, to an 18-to-18 deadlock on Friday, January 27. The Greyhounds managed the stalemate on the strength of heavyweight Carter Beese's quick fall over Western Maryland's Bart Chirigas, in 1.38.

Loyola had the edge in victories, 4 to 3, but defeated the 121-lb. match. Joe McLaughlin showed up favorably, though losing a close 4-to-2 decision to Robert Wilsey in the 125-lb. division. Following this, the grapplers bounced back with a victory in the 136-lb. class in lieu of Ted Haupt's 3-to-1 decision over Frank Wilsey.

The 145-lb. fracas ended most surprisingly with a freak fall by the Terrors' Battels in 2.43 over Neal Bathon. Showing his usual classy form in the 165-lb. match, Steve Krizan threw Siegel of Western Maryland in 4.55.

George Stevens, in the 165's, proved too much for the visitors' Bill Ball, as he stepped out and threw him in 2.11. Western Maryland again went ahead in the 175-lb. bracket as their Bill Silber drew a surprise win over Jim Garland by a fall.

Baltimore, Catholic U.

Loyola faces the last two of its Mason-Dixon wrestling opponents tomorrow afternoon and a week from tomorrow, facing Baltimore University and Catholic University, respectively.

The first of these two matches will be on the Bees' home mats, while the season's finale will be held here at Evergreen.

The Greyhounds figure to have a tough time with both foes despite the fact that both were handily beaten last year.

The Green and Grey disposed of the Cardinals, 27½ to 4½, at Washington in 1949, while the Bees were beaten in our own Alumni gymnasium, 30 to 8, as they copped only the 155-pound and heavyweight matches.

Immediately after that Phil Goodman's charges must engage upon a stiff period of preparation for the annual Mason-Dixon Tournament, to be held at Hopkins on March 10 and 11.

So far this season Loyola's log stands at four losses and one tie, but Goodman is hoping to have his boys in fine physical and mental shape for the two-day slugfest, which pits the best of the conference matmen against each other in a bid for laurels.

Last year, the Greyhounds managed to gain the runner-up spot in the tourney as Franny Meagher captured the championship in the 165-pound class by pinning Bob DeYoung of Catholic University.

Mr. Serio hails from St. Edward's parish, where he attended grammar school before entering Loyola High School in 1935. His class was one of the first to be graduated at the Jesuit high school's present site, at Blakefield.

In the fall of the same year he entered Mt. St. Mary's. In his first two years there he performed for the varsity basketball and baseball teams before athletics were discontinued there in 1941 because of the war.

After he was graduated from Mt. St. Mary's in 1943, he entered the Navy, where he served for two and one-half years. After his discharge he did graduate work in medical biology at Georgetown University and also spent some time at the University of Maryland, doing work in Bacteriology. In 1946 he matriculated at the University of Havana.

In Los Angeles, there is always a friendly gathering of University of Southern California students at Ted Owen's. And, as in colleges everywhere, ice-cold Coca-Cola helps make these get-togethers something to remember. As a refreshing pause from the study grind, or on a Saturday-night date—Coke belongs.

Ask for it either way . . . both trade-marks mean the same thing.
